

SENSITIZATION WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS AND STUDENTS ON “TEACHER’S DAY”, 5TH
SEPTEMBER, 2018, BHAGALPUR, BIHAR

DETAILED REPORT

As part of the Teacher’s Day celebration, a sensitization workshop was organised for teachers, students and Ganga Praharis on 5th September, 2018 at the Ramdhari High School, Bhagalpur, Bihar. The purpose of this workshop was to sensitize the participants on the importance of indicator species in maintaining a healthy ecosystem and role of youth in restoration of Ganga river. The teachers and students were also introduced to the NMCG-WII project “Biodiversity Conservation and Ganga Rejuvenation”. The workshop was attended by 165 students from classes 8th to 11th, 11 Ganga Praharis and 8 teachers.

PROGRAMME SCHEDULE

Sensitization Workshop for teachers and students on “teacher’s day”, 5th September, 2018, Ramdhari High School, Bhagalpur, Bihar
10:00 – 10:15	Welcome Address	Mr. Gyan Chandra Gyani ( Ganga Praharis )
10:15 – 10:45	Project Biodiversity Conservation and Ganga Rejuvenation: An overview	Ms. Monika Mehralu
10:45 – 11:15	Bal Ganga Prahari	Dr. Deepika Dogra
11:15 – 11:45	Turtles of Ganga	Mr. Saurav Gawan
11:45 – 12:15	Interaction
12:15 – 12:30	Vote of Thanks	Mr. Vipul Maurya

PHOTO GALLERY

