

COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION IN COLLABORATION WITH SPEARHEAD TEAM OF WEST BENGAL FOREST DEPARTMENT AND GANGA PRAHARIS AT NAYACHAR, NADIA, WEST BENGAL ON 6TH FEBRUARY, 2019

DETAILED REPORT

Community interaction, assisted by the spearhead team of West Bengal Forest Department and Ganga Praharis was organized at Nayachar, Nadia district, West Bengal on 6th February, 2019. During the interaction role and active involvement of the Ganga Praharis and stakeholders at various levels was discussed. With respect to alternate livelihood options for the local people of Nayachar, a need assessment was carried out for implementing the livelihood training programme for the women folk at Nayachar in future. The local women were made aware about the government schemes and agencies that are working on skill development for youth and women. The programme was attended by 38 participants; include 29 local people and 9 forest officials including Divisional Forest Officer (DFO), and 8 frontline staff.

WII TEAM: Resource persons from WII comprised of Dr. Sangeeta Angom, Mrs. Hemlata Khanduri, Dr. Deepika Dogra, Ms. Monika Mehralu, Ms. Michelle Irengbam and Ms. Suchismita Das.

PROGRAMME SCHEDULE

6th February 2019
1030 -1100	Registration – Ms. Monika Mehralu
1100-1130	Workshop inauguration and welcome address - Dr. Sangeeta Angom
1130-1200	Introduction to the NMCG-WII project “Biodiversity Conservation and Ganga Rejuvenation” : Issues and Challenges in Biodiversity Conservation of Ganga River – Dr. Sangeeta Angom
1200-1230	Ganga Praharis activities in West Bengal- Dr. Deepika Dogra

1230 -1300	Biodiversity of Ganga River and factors affecting it – Ms. Suchismita Das
1300 - 1400	Refreshment
1400 - 1430	Role of communities in conservation of Ganga River - Ms. Hemlata Khanduri
1430 - 1445	Documentaries I, II & Namami Gange Anthem
1445 - 1500	Discussion & Feedback form
1500 - 1530	Concluding Remarks and Future Actions

PHOTO GALLERY

MEDIA COVERAGE

